

PEACE Iowa invites you to a community-building workshop facilitated by Nathan Kleban

Peace-Building in Iowa City and Reactions to the War in Ukraine

Iowa City Public Library
Meeting Room D

Sunday, Oct. 8
2-5 pm

- Structured conversations
- Community-building exercises
- Connecting as advocates for peace

About Nathan Kleban

Nathan is an experienced facilitator who recently moved to Iowa City. Most involved with the Alternatives to Violence Project, Nathan has also facilitated Kingian Nonviolence workshops with Kazu Haga. He has long been involved with the Catholic Worker movement, and has lived and served in various intentional communities dedicated to peace, healing, and sustainability.

Registration is welcomed but not required at peaceiowa@gmail.com

